Salmon Dinner Thank You: What an amazing evening! We collected over $5,200 to support Camp Lutherwood! We need to thank many people who made the event happen: Jerome and Karen Fisher for the delicious salmon, Brian Galbraith for heading up the BBQ, Kris Merritt for heading up the Apple crisp baking. Inger Conner was our chief chef for the dinner, the rest of the council pitched in as needed, and a fabulous dinner was the result. We served over 165 dinners! Thank you to the Nelson and Knutzen families for the potatoes. Finally, a big thank you to our church council and spouses for setting up, serving, and cleaning up a wonderful dinner. Also thanks to all who advertised, attended, donated, and shared our dinner.

Our reputation for serving a great dinner has been secured for another year!

New Members: Are you or anyone you know interested in becoming a member of Edison Lutheran Church? Please attend our first meeting tonight at 6:00 pm in the fellowship Hall. Either call or email the church office at: 360-766-6920 or office@elcbow.org for more information.

New Food Bank: At the October meeting the church council voted to change the recipient of our Food Bank donations. Going forward our donations will go to the Farm Worker Center in Mount Vernon. This center, run by Catholic Community Services, serves some of the most vulnerable in our community. The Farm Worker Center provides home delivery if this is needed. ELC donations will make a big impact for the people served by the Farm Worker Center.
